Sabbatean Frankist-Freemasonic Chronology

The Mystical Jewish Messiah of the 17th century, Sabbatai (Shabbatai) Tzvi, promised to depose the kings of the earth, unite the ten lost tribes and restore Israel. When Sabbatai approached the Sultan of the Ottoman Empire he thought that the Sultan would have the humility to recognise his greatness and humble himself. The Sultan would have met a man who was clearly greater than himself. Sabbatai would receive the Sultanate and rule the known world. He originally intended to accomplish these goals overtly, however, when the Ottoman ruler threatened to kill him rather than hand over his throne, Sabbatai Tzvi understood that he had to take his messianic movement underground. His goals had to be achieved with stealth and deception. His movement was labelled "Apostate Messianism". Though he would lose the open support of most rabbinic authorities and mainstream Judaism, his faithful followers would be assigned the task of continuing his mission.

Forty-one years after Sabbatai Tzvi's physical death, his hidden followers would establish Freemasonry in England. Freemasonry would continue Sabbatai Tzvi's agenda of achieving world rule. Freemasonry linking up with Illuminism has indeed, through revolution and wars, overthrown the monarchies of the world. Freemasonry/Illuminism has taken the reins of the Jewish, Catholic (Vatican) and the Islamic world, united the remnant of the lost tribes through the establishment of the European Union and has "restored" Israel. The infidel "rabbinic" European Jews who had abandoned Sabbatai Tzvi were decimated by the Freemasonic Holocaust of World War II. The Masonic State of Israel would be granted independence by the Masonic United Nations.

1492- Jewish Expulsion from Spain

1492- The first known Illuminati order (Alumbrado) was founded in 1492 by Spanish Crypto-Jews, called 'Marranos'.

1494- The first evidence of Jews in Tudor England after the expulsion.

1527- Ignatius Loyola, while studying at Salamanca, was brought before an ecclesiastical commission on a charge of sympathy with the alumbrados, but escaped with an admonition.

1588- The Converso (a Jew or Moor of medieval Spain and Portugal who professed to convert to Christianity in order to avoid persecution or expulsion) Dr. Hector Nunes was lauded as a hero for being the first to warn of the sailing of the Spanish Armada.

1589- Christopher Marlowe's anti-Semitic play, The Jew of Malta, was first performed.

1594- Queen Elizabeth I's physician, a Converso named Dr. Roderigo Lopez, was implicated in a plot to assassinate Elizabeth. He was tortured, tried and hanged on what is suspected to be a false charge of treason. Anglo Jewry then fled to the Low Countries, often disguised as Spanish or Portuguese Roman Catholics.

1597- William Shakespeare's famous play about a Jewish moneylender, The Merchant of Venice, was first acted out.

1604- Mannaseh Ben-Israel born

1609- Portuguese merchants were expelled from London on suspicion of being Jewish

1639- Sabbatai Tzvi reaches bar-mitzvah (13 years old)

1640- Manasseh Ben-Israel named to head Yeshiva (enabled by the Bankers Perreiras) enabling him to focus on writings. Manasseh was most profoundly interested in Messianic problems. He was full of Cabalistic opinions. He entered into correspondence with Christina, Queen of Sweden, ostensibly regarding matters of Hebrew learning, but probably with the design of getting her help in obtaining for the Jews admission into Sweden. But his chief attention was directed to securing the readmission of Jews into England.

[Antonio de Montezinos, nee Aaron Levi, a 17th century Converso who reclaimed his Jewish ancestry after fleeing the Inquisition in Portugal, went to Peru in search of a "holy people" rumoured to be living among the Amazon Indians. On a remote jungle river near the Ecuadorian border, Montezinos was greeted by a band of light-skinned "Indians" in dugout canoes. On learning that he was an Israelite from across the seas, the fair-complexioned aborigines recited the "Shema Israel" and announced they were descendants of the tribe of Reuben. On his return to Amsterdam, Montezinos shared his discovery with a famous Converso rabbi, Menasseh Ben-Israel, who broadcast the news on his printing press that the Biblical prophecy had been fulfilled. He predicted that the scattered tribes of Israel were soon to reunite in Jerusalem to rebuild Solomon's temple and usher in the Messianic age.]

1647- Oliver Cromwell conspires with Manasseh Ben-Israel's agent to execute English King Charles I. [An entry for June 6th 1647, from Oliver Cromwell to an Ebenezer Pratt, says (in modern language):

"In return for financial support will advocate admission of Jews to England; this, however, impossible while Charles living, Charles cannot be executed without trial, adequate grounds for which at present do not exist, Therefore, advise that Charles be assassinated, but will have nothing to do with procuring an assassin, though willing to help with his escape."

Ebenezer Pratt's reply was on July 12th 1647 :

"Will grant financial aid as soon as Charles removed and Jews admitted, assassination too dangerous. Charles should be given the opportunity to escape, his recapture will then make trial and execution possible. The support will be liberal, but useless to discuss terms until trial commences."

Another trial was ordered by Cromwell because his agreement with his backers in Amsterdam was that Charles would be executed. The indictment against Charles was drawn up by Isaac Dorislaus, the agent in England of Manasseh Ben-Israel, one of the main funders from Amsterdam of the Cromwell 'revolution'."]

1642- Sabbatai began the Kabbalistic meditative discipline "Climbing Sephirotic Ladder" (The Lost Messiah page 26)

1707- Rabbi Moshe Chaim Luzzatto born. Luzzatto admitted to being influenced by the writings of Nathan of Gaza, Sabbatai Tzvi's "prophet." He claimed that the positive elements of Sabbatai Tzvi's teachings could be separated from the "heretical" elements, but few rabbinic authorities agreed with this opinion, since Sabbateanism was a powerful wave sweeping over the Jewish community. A bitter controversy ensued concerning the verity and propriety of Luzzatto's activities and claims. Luzzatto's house was searched and evidence that he engaged in magical practices was found. He was compelled to cease and desist from teaching Kabbalah.

1648- Chmielnicki massacres thousands of Jews in Europe

1650- Judah HaChassid (the Pious) was born around 1650 in Poland. He was powerfully affected by Sabbatai Tzvi. He believed that Sabbatai Tzvi was, in fact, the Messiah. He expected his second appearance in 1706.

Mid-17th century- A new Converso colony grew in London, made up partly of refugees from Rouen and the Canary Islands.

1651-1654- Sabbatai thoroughly beaten and driven out of Izmir. It was advised that he be killed secretly but instead was thoroughly beaten and driven out of Izmir.

1655- In September, Manasseh Ben-Israel moved to London and on October 31 submitted a seven-point petition to the Council of State calling for the return of Jews to England.

1655- Cromwell called the Whitehall Conference of December 4-18, to discuss Jewish readmission. Many merchants questioned Cromwell's ideas and Cromwell angrily dismissed the conference, resolving to authorize an unofficial readmission of the Jews into England.

1656- Cromwell's oral guarantee and the approval of the Council of State allowed the Conversos of England to practice their faith openly.

1657- Jews immigrate to England from Holland, Spain and Portugal and open a synagogue. Thus, the new Israelite congregation in England was composed almost exclusively of Sephardim. The first Jews who received nobility titles in England also were Sephardim: Solomon de Medina (c. 1650-1730) and Sir Moses Montefiore (1784-1885), who was knighted in 1837 and made a baronet in 1846.

1664- Charles II issues a formal written promise of protection and, in 1674 and 1685, further royal declarations were made confirming that statement. In 1698, the Act for Suppressing Blasphemy granted recognition to the legality of practicing Judaism in England.

1665- May 31, 1665 (17th of Sivan of the Hebrew Calendar). Sabbatai Tzvi, at 39, proclaims himself Messiah in Gaza. Announcing that, "He will proceed to the river Sambatyon to bring back the Lost Tribes".

Sabbatai Tzvi and Nathan the Prophet felt an empathy for Jesus. According to Sabbatean belief, the soul of the messiah had been reincarnated 18 times from Adam onward, including, probably, Jesus. Reportedly Sabbatai Tzvi once exclaimed: "What has Jesus done that you ill-treated him thus? I shall see to it that he will be counted among the prophets. (In time, Sabbateans would quietly take the helm of the Vatican)

1665- Sabbatai Tzvi placed under house arrest by the Sultan. Locked in chains and is threatened with poison arrows to prove his divinity. Is given choice between Islamic conversion or death. Sabbatai chooses Islam and life. He doesn't cease being a Jew but becomes Muslim also. Sabbatai is above the categorisation of Jew or Muslim. Much to the shock and chagrin of the Jewish world Sabbatai appeases the Sultan. He then begins to lay the groundwork restructuring of the world based on universalism and world brotherhood ruled by an elite of his devoted followers dedicated to eradicating the world's ills and promoting progress of civilisation.

1665- Sabbatai given post in the Sultan's palace until 1673.

1730- Masonic lodges, promoting universal brotherhood, began springing up in continental Europe. At that time a new type of Jew was emerging, one who had acquired some Western education and had adjusted his behaviour to conform to the standards accepted among gentiles, to the extent that he now could aspire to full membership in their society. This new Jew first made his appearance among the Sephardim of England, Holland, and France and afterward among the Ashkenazim of all Western countries. After the 1780's he became a permanent feature of European social life as becomes evident from the number of Jews who kept knocking at the doors of the Masonic lodges.

1732- Another Jew, Edward Rose, was initiated in a Lodge presided by Daniel Delvalle, 'eminent Jew snuff merchant' as characterised in a report in the Daily Post of 22 September 1732. Without doubt, Delvalle must have preceded Rose by several years, to have reached the high position of Master of the Lodge. Furthermore, Bro. Mathias Levy, in an article entitled 'Jews as Freemasons' published in The Jewish Chronicle in 1898, claims that the initiation took place 'in the presence of Jews and non-Jews.' These other Jews present must have been Masons themselves, initiated at an earlier date.

This sect abandoned Judaism for a "higher Torah" (Jewish Law) based on the Zohar, which was the most important work in the Kabbala, the Jewish mystical movement. Hence its members also called themselves Zoharists. Their practices, including orgiastic, were sexually promiscuous rites. Joseph II, Emperor of Austria beds with Franks daughter, Eva during a rite. (Antelman TETO vol.1 p.104)

1756- The Jewish community banned Jacob Frank and his group as heretics.

1769- Napoleon born on August 15.

1770s- Jacob Frank made a pact with Adam Weishaupt, a Jewish-born Jesuit, to enlist his Sabbateans to join Weishaupt's Illuminati. [Note: The Illuminati Order was not invented by Adam Weishaupt, but rather renewed and reformed. The first known Illuminati order (Alumbrado) was founded in 1492 by Spanish Jews, called 'Marranos,' who were also known as 'crypto-Jews.' In 1491 San Ignacio De Loyola was born in the Basque province of Guipuzcoa, Spain. His parents were Marranos and at the time of his birth the family was very wealthy. As a young man he became a member of the Illuminati Order in Spain. As a cover for his crypto Jewish activities, he became very active as a Roman Catholic. In 1539 he had moved to Rome where he founded the 'Jesuit Order'.]

1772- August. Frank released by conquering Russians who had occupied Czestochowa

"The old established Frankfurt families were well represented in the lodge including: the Adlers, Speyers, Reisses, and Sichels. Even the richest and most powerful Frankfurt families were included: the Ellisons, Hanaus, Goldschmidts, and Rothschilds. Salomon Mayer (who afterward moved to Vienna), the second of the five Rothschild brothers, became a member."

Are the Shabbatean-Frankists Continuing Where King Solomon Left Off?

The throne of King Solomon is described in 1 Kings 10:18-20: "Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the best gold.. The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind: and there were stays on either side on the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the stays. And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom."

King Messiah, Shabbatai Tzvi depicted sitting atop Solomon's Throne

The mystical messiah, Shabbatai Tzvi had come to complete the mission of Solomon which was nothing less than to establish Davidic rule over the Earth by any and all means possible, overtly or covertly. Shabbatai Tzvi first tried to overtly take the throne of the Sultan of the Ottoman empire who, at the time, ruled the known world. When the Sultan refused to hand over his crown and sceptre, Shabbatai Tzvi, at first despondent, realised that Providence had opened up a different door. A door that led to the covert path of the messiah. The bible speaks of the messiah entering Jerusalem in two manners. He will either arrive on clouds or riding a donkey. The arrival on clouds is a metaphor for ease of acceptance. The governing authorities will realise the greatness of the messiah and bow to his rule. The donkey or "chamor" in Hebrew denotes the opposite. The donkey connotes burden. The messiah will be confronted with a burden upon entering the gates of Jerusalem. The ruling authorities will be threatened and attempt to thwart his mission.

When Shabbatai Tzvi approached the Sultan, the Sultan, though he realised Shabbatai was a noble soul, was not prepared to hand over his crown. Instead, he gave Shabbatai Tzvi a simple choice. Don the turban (convert to Islam) or die. Now, Shabbatai Tzvi knew himself to be the Lord's chosen messiah. He knew that death could not possibly be an option for him. Conversion? To a Jew, that was worse than death. Nevertheless, Shabbatai Tzvi chose to convert. Why? He had faith in Providence. He soon realised that Providence had merely shown him a different door. He would bring Davidic rule over the Earth by covert means.

With his decision to convert however, he lost the support of world Jewry. This is understandable. Their decision to abandon their messiah didn't alter Shabbatai Tzvi's status as being the messiah though. He kept going. He just took his mission underground and shouldered the burden of covertly establishing Davidic world rule. He and his followers went about this process so quietly that, although they have all but accomplished their mission, the people of the world are none the wiser. At this point, even though we are discussing it openly, the rule of the Shabbatean-Frankists is so complete that we pose absolutely no threat. All safeguards are in place. We will be branded anti-semites (even though I am Jewish) and dismissed as one would dismiss a fool. Today, conspiracy theory is considered the play of fools. In a way...it is as, at this point there is nothing that can undo the rule of the Shabbatean-Frankists. 99% of the people reading this still doubt the existence of the group.

Israel's Shabbatean Leaders Exposed!

This is a photo of Yitzhak Ben-Zvi, the "Father of the State of Israel":

Here is his Wiki: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Yitzhak\_Ben-Zvi He can also be found on the new Israeli 100 shekel bill.

Yitzhak Ben-Zvi (24 November 1884 – 23 April 1963; Hebrew: יצחק בן צבי) was a historian, Labor Zionist leader, the second and longest-serving President of Israel.

Following his studies at Galatasaray High School in Constantinople, from 1912 to 1914 Ben-Zvi studied law at Istanbul University, together with the future Israeli prime minister David Ben-Gurion.

Ben-Zvi served in the Jewish Legion together with Ben-Gurion. In 1919, he helped found the Ahdut HaAvoda party, and became increasingly active in the Haganah. He was later elected to the Jerusalem City Council and president of the National Council, the shadow government of the Jewish community in Mandatory Palestine. According to a book published in 1985, Ben-Zvi allegedly ordered the 1924 political assassination of Jacob Israël de Haan, who had turned into an anti-Zionist.

"In 1948, Ben-Zvi headed the Institute for the Study of Oriental Jewish Communities in the Middle East, later named the Ben-Zvi Institute (Yad Ben-Zvi) in his honour. His main field of research was the Jewish communities and sects of Asia and Africa, including the Samaritans and Karaites." Ben-Zvi also researched the Shabbatean Donmeh community of Turkey. Within the Ben-Zvi Institute are important relics from the days of the "false" Shabbatai Tzvi.

In Gershom Scholem's Magnum Opus entitled, "Shabbatai Tzvi: The Mystical Messiah, there are no less than 18 footnotes and references to relics of Shabbatai Tzvi that are housed at the Ben-Zvi Institute.

It is interesting that the "Father of the State of Israel" had become an expert in Shabbatean artifacts.

I found it a curious coincidence that a man with the surname Ben-Zvi, was not only a curator of an Institute housing Shabbatean artifacts but also an honored politician of Israel. Curious because Shabbatai Tzvi also was known as ben-Zvi (son of Zvi or Tzvi or Sevi) as his father was named Tzvi. (Tzvi is Hebrew for deer)

Was it possible that Yitzhak Ben-Zvi, the "Father of the State of Israel, was descended from Shabbatai ben-Tzvi?

Ben-Zvi went to school in Turkey. Shabbatai Tzvi was from Turkey. (He went to school with David Ben-Gurion. Perhaps Ben-Gurion is also a descendant of Shabbatai Tzvi?)

It would be in line with Illuminati irony to have a descendant of Shabbatai Tzvi honoured as the Father of the State of Israel. Was the State of Israel named for the messiah Shabbatai Tzvi's eldest son? Again, that would be in line with Illuminati irony. Israel ben Shabbatai ben Zvi was likely ground zero of the Shabbatean-Frankist breeding program patterned after Solomon's breeding scheme.

Did the "Father of the State of Israel" descend from Shabbatai Tzvi? Perhaps. I'm inclined to think so.

Ever wonder why the same politicians keep rotating in positions of power in Israel? Perhaps they too descend from the covert messiah Shabbatai Tzvi. Perhaps that is why the secret society, Freemasonry is so popular in Israel.

Shabbatean-Frankist Sex Rituals Explained

There is very little available information regarding the sex rituals of the messianic Shabbatean-Frankist cult. The information that I have read on the subject speaks of incest and adulterous rituals taking place under the cloak of secrecy. What was the purpose of these rituals? Where did they originate?

The messianic idea originated within Judaism. The first requirement of the messiah, according to Jewish scripture, is that the messiah must come from the House of David. David and his son Solomon were both considered successful rulers. As they had the blessings of the Most High, they had what it took to bring law and order to an otherwise unruly and ungodly region like Canaan.

They did so with blood-shed and taxes. Sound familiar? It should. The world today is being run according to the Davidic/Solomonic model. According to Jewish scripture, God did not allow David to build His Temple. Why? Because David had too much Canaanite blood on his hands. The building of the Temple fell to Solomon.

Solomon built the Temple of God by imposing heavy taxes where ever he could. Solomon ruled for 40 years. After he died, the Kingdom of Israel became divided for one reason or another. Heavy taxes was not the least of reasons for the break-up. Jewish scripture blames the division of Solomon's kingdom on Solomon's "sins." Though scripture states that Solomon was the wisest of all men, it nevertheless faults him with foolishness when it came to three things. 1.

He gathered too much gold. 2. He took too many wives. 3. He acquired too many horses. These three things were expressly forbidden to Jewish kings in scripture. It God Himself who, through Moses, set this warning before the future kings of Israel. What was Solomon thinking?

Too make a long story short, the prophesy of a "messiah" promised to restore the glory of Israel and took hold over the minds of the Jewish people. The messiah would be a man, with Divine authority, who would take over where Solomon left off. The Davidic royal dynasty would be restored with Jerusalem at the centre of their ever-lasting Kingdom. This time, however, Davidic dynasty would establish rule over the entire Earth.

The messiah would be a Jewish king, a descendent of David who would pick up where Solomon left off and establish a messianic dynasty upon the entire world. Solomon had taken a lot of heat for his sins but were they sins? Perhaps Solomon was in the process of fulfilling the role of the messiah? Let's look at his "sins": In Deuteronomy 17:16-17, a king is commanded not to multiply horses or wives, neither greatly multiply to himself gold or silver. 1. Greatly multiply gold or silver: Was Solomon attempting to establish a World central bank? 2. Multiply horse: Was Solomon attempting to assemble the world's greatest army? A United Nations Peacekeeping Force if you will? 3. Multiply wives: Solomon had 700 wives. 700 is a metaphor. According to Jewish tradition, the world is comprised of 70 nations. 10 is a kabbalistic metaphor for completeness. 700 denotes that Solomon was married to all the princesses of the known world, from the daughter of Pharaoh on down.

He was son-in-law to the lesser kings and noblemen of the known world. This act of massive polygamy united the nations of the world into one family. In short, Solomon's sin brought global solidarity. Solomon turned all nations into allies through mass marriage and allies don't fight allies. Family doesn't war with family. For whatever reason, Solomon's "messianic" plan stalled. Enter Shabbatai Tzvi, the "Mystical Messiah" and Jacob Frank, the "Militant Messiah" and their dynasty, the Rothschilds.

The result of Shabbatean-Frankist messianic efforts have achieved what David and Solomon had initiated. As regards: Multiply Gold & Silver: The value of gold is determined everyday in the offices of the Rothschilds in London. Multiply Horses: The Rothschild's Shabbatean-Frankist messianic cult operates the worlds largest peacekeeping force through the United Nations. Multiply Wives: The sex rituals of the Shabbatean-Frankists have exponentially multiplied the group in a hidden manner providing politicians with no apparent link to the cult that can operate on either side of a given political party or conflict of war. The United Nations envisioned by David and Solomon have been realised through the Cult of the All-Seeing Eye a.k.a. Shabbatean-Frankists. This realisation occurred on a global scale. There was more blood shed than David shed in battle with Canaan. Peace has been achieved, or rather, will soon be achieved across the Earth rather than within the regional kingdom of ancient Israel.
