Dear Registrar,

Further to my update of 22 March, I advise that Mr Cockman has applied for this matter to be heard by the High Court.

While I have already disclosed my membership of the Australian Labor Party (WA Branch) and while I do not see how a perceived conflict could arise, for completeness I also declare that the Australian Labor Party (WA Branch) is again covering the legal costs of this matter.

Yours sincerely,

| Item      | Details  |
| 11. Gifts | I recently published a paper titled "Understanding the impact of lockdowns on short-term excess mortality in Australia" in BMJ Global Health, coauthored with Oxford professor Philip Clarke. BMJ Global Health is an open access journal and levies an article processing charge of 3,090 GBP. My coauthor Philip Clarke paid the article processing charge from his research account. This isn't really a gift, but I'm disclosing it from an abundance of caution, and in the interests of full transparency. |
