Over 100 individuals have now been named who are linked to Jeffrey Epstein/Ghislaine Maxwell as well as the international children's charity ARK, Absolute Return for Kids. This is the 'ARK/Epstein Network'.

The 11th Duke of Marlborough, John George Vanderbilt Henry Spencer-Churchill, died on 16 October 2014; his private funeral service, for family and close friends, was held on 24 October 2014.

Of the 'close friends' who attended, 26 have been identified, 21 of these are of the ARK/Epstein Network.

They are listed below.

Blenheim Palace says farewell to the Duke of Marlborough: Son and heir Jamie Blandford leads mourners at his father's funeral

A flag bearing the family crest flew at half-mast over the palace, a Unesco World Heritage Site, and its formal gardens were closed today for the funeral, held just over a week after the 11th Duke died aged 88.

Order of Saint John (chartered 1888)

The Order of St John,<sup>[3]</sup> short for Most Venerable Order of the Hospital of Saint John of Jerusalem (French: l'ordre très vénérable de l'Hôpital de Saint-Jean de Jérusalem)<sup>[n 1]</sup> and also known as St John International,<sup>[4]</sup> is a British royal order of chivalry constituted in 1888 by royal charter from Queen Victoria and dedicated to St John the Baptist.

The order traces its origins back to the Knights Hospitaller in the Middle Ages, which was later known as the Order of Malta. A faction of them emerged in France in the 1820s and moved to Britain in the early 1830s, where, after operating under a succession of grand priors and different names, it became associated with the founding in 1882 of the St John Ophthalmic Hospital near the old city of Jerusalem and the St John Ambulance Brigade in 1887.

The order is found throughout the Commonwealth of Nations,<sup>[5]</sup> Hong Kong, the Republic of Ireland, and the United States of America,<sup>[6]</sup> with the worldwide mission "to prevent and relieve sickness and injury, and to act to enhance the health and well-being of people anywhere in the world."<sup>[6]</sup> The order's approximately 25,000 members, known as confrères,<sup>[5]</sup> are mostly of the Protestant faith, though those of other Christian denominations or other religions are accepted into the order. Except via appointment to certain government or ecclesiastical offices in some realms, membership is by invitation only and individuals may not petition for admission.

The Order of St John is perhaps best known for the health organisations it founded and continues to run, including St John Ambulance and St John Eye Hospital Group. As with the order, the memberships and work of these organizations are not constricted by denomination or religion. The order is a constituent member of the Alliance of the Orders of Saint John of Jerusalem. Its headquarters are in London and it is a registered charity under English law.<sup>[7]</sup>

Sovereign Military Order of Malta

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The Sovereign Military Order of Malta (SMOM), officially the Sovereign Military Hospitaller Order of Saint John of Jerusalem, of Rhodes and of Malta (Italian: Sovrano Militare Ordine Ospedaliero di San Giovanni di Gerusalemme, di Rodi e di Malta; Latin: Supremus Militaris Ordo Hospitalarius Sancti Ioannis Hierosolymitani Rhodiensis et Melitensis), commonly known as the Order of Malta or Knights of Malta, is a Catholic lay religious order, traditionally of a military, chivalric, and noble nature.<sup>[4]</sup> Though it possesses no territory, the order is often considered a sovereign entity of international law.

The order claims continuity with the Knights Hospitaller, a chivalric order that was founded about 1099 by the Blessed Gerard in the Kingdom of Jerusalem.<sup>[5]</sup> The order is led by an elected prince and grand master.<sup>[6]</sup> Its motto is Tuio fidei et obsequium pauperum ('Defence of the faith and assistance to the poor'). The order venerates the Virgin Mary as its patroness, under the title of Our Lady of Philemos.

The Order's membership includes about 13,500 Knights, Dames and Chaplains.<sup>[7]</sup> Thirty-three of these are professed religious Knights of Justice.<sup>[2]</sup> Until the 1990s, the highest classes of membership, including officers, required proof of noble lineage. More recently, a path was created for Knights and Dames of the lowest class (of whom proof of aristocratic lineage is not required) to be specially elevated to the highest class, making them eligible for office in the order.

The Order's modern-day role is largely focused on providing humanitarian assistance and assisting with international humanitarian relations, for which purpose it has had permanent observer status at the United Nations General Assembly since 1994.<sup>[8]</sup> The Order employs about 52,000 doctors, nurses, auxiliaries and paramedics assisted by 95,000 volunteers in more than 120 countries, assisting children, homeless, disabled, elderly, and terminally ill people, refugees, and lepers around the world without distinction of ethnicity or religion.<sup>[note 1]</sup> Through its worldwide relief corps, Malteser International, the order aids victims of natural disasters, epidemics and war.<sup>[9]</sup>

The Order maintains diplomatic relations with 112 states,<sup>[10]</sup> enters into treaties, and issues its own passports, coins and postage stamps. Its two headquarters buildings in Rome enjoy extraterritoriality,<sup>[11]</sup> similar to embassies, and it maintains embassies in other countries. The Agenzia Nazionale Stampa Associata news agency has called it "the smallest sovereign state in the world".<sup>[12]</sup> The three principal officers are counted as citizens.<sup>[3]</sup> Although the Order has been a United Nations General Assembly observer since 1994,<sup>[10][13]</sup> this was granted in view of its "long-standing dedication [...] in providing humanitarian assistance and its special role in international humanitarian relations";<sup>[8]</sup> the same category is held by other non-state entities such as the International Olympic Committee and International Committee of the Red Cross.<sup>[14]</sup>

Pope Dissolves Knights of Malta Leadership, Issues New Constitution September 03, 2022

FILE - Members of the Order of the Knights of Malta arrive in St. Peter's Basilica for their 900th anniversary at the Vatican, Feb. 9, 2013.

VATICAN CITY — Pope Francis on Saturday dissolved the leadership of the Knights of Malta, the global Catholic religious order and humanitarian group, and installed a provisional government ahead of the election of a new grand master. The change, which the pope issued in a decree, came after five years of often acrimonious debate within the order and between some top members of the old guard and the Vatican over a new constitution that some feared would weaken its sovereignty.

Hundreds of people lined the streets of Woodstock to watch the funeral cortege pass by on its way to the church, where the new Duke of Marlborough gave a reading, as did his siblings Lady Alexandra, Lord Edward, and Lady Henrietta Spencer-Churchill.

Sir Mark Weinberg also gave a tribute...
